

Async 90si Released to Production, 19 January 2010

Excellent News... I have released the new async capable software to production which will begin on Tuesday, January 19th. The first batch of Async 90si PC boards are completed and awaiting the software so we only have final test, QC and final assembly to do before we can begin shipping later in the week. We will be filling a backlog of orders on a first -received-first-shipped basis and expect to complete that within two or three weeks, at which time we will be shipping new 90si and Trade-In orders out of stock.

If You Have a 90si... It's worth at least $264 towards a new Async Capable 90si as a Trade-In. Every 90si ever sold, including those sold more than 11 years ago by GTE and TSP, will receive this trade-in discount. Newer units will receive more substantial trade-in discounts, as you will note below:
